Jump Rope and Hoops for Heart

Kaislyn Drewes

Justice Haaland

Evi Loeffen

Holy Rosary students and their generous families recently wrapped up another successful year of fundraising for the American Heart Association or AHA. This year they collected more than $1300 during the Kids Heart Challenge, an annual event where students learn about their heart and heart health while raising money for their school and AHA.

Top fundraisers for the 2021 Kids Heart Challenge were Kaislyn Drewes with $326.89, Evi Loeffen with $252.86 and Justice Haaland with $167.86. "I started raising money for the Kids Heart Challenge after I had my heart surgery," explained Fourth Grader, Kaislyn Drewes. "I keep doing it because it is fun," she added. "I do it because I like to help others," noted Third Grader, Evi Loeffen. "The Kids Heart Challenge is always fun. I like it because it helps kids who need surgeries or help with their hearts," says Justice Haaland.

In addition to participating in both the Jump Rope for Heart and Hoops for Heart, Holy Rosary students were taught a variety of "Heart Smart" games and activities to keep their heart going strong for years to come. Grades Fifth through Eighth also learned how the heart worked during this year's Kid's Heart Challenge.

"I like learning about the heart," said Fifth Grader Riley Zurn who raised $148.38 for the AHA this year. "I like that the heart protects you from all evil and makes you healthy," concluded Zurn.
